I like all the "how to" books... tying, tactics, stream guides, etc.

The one fiction book I have not seen mentioned yet is "The Fly Fishingest Gentleman"

Now I absolutely HATE reading. Counting that book, I think I can count all the books I have completed since birth on 1 hand (counting the cat in the hat). I could not put that book down when I got it as a gift. (I will probably read it again this winter) I have since read, Lee Wulf, the Compleat, which is also an excellent read. That guy was amazing!

Just wanted to put my 2 cents in... with inflation, it's still not that much.

(ooo look what ebay came up with)
