I wish that I had learned proper casting technique from the getgo.

The person who taught me, pretty much just handed me a rod and said "do it". I started casting with lots of wrist action, which seemed to be the easiest way to gain accuracy.

And I just kept fishing that way for years.

And now, even though I know that it's not the best way to cast, it's a habit that I've never been really able to break completely
