fishrich,

Fisher is running around the downstreams right now with his little Spoungebob rod now.

I have used CDC, but like them for my loop winged CDC emergers. You can certainly use CDC, but for the fullness I desired to accomplish on the snowshoe emergers, rabbit foots was best. As for another book. I did just help with "Tying Dry Flies" which just can out. Very nicely done, but do know there is word of more books I will be doing later down the raod.
