As for the hotel Heritage and I stayed at this one in November <http://www.sunsetmotelpa.com/>.

Good prices ($49.95/night). The owner was very nice. Plus you can back your vehicle right up to your room.

I second the Avonia Tavern. Good food at a good price.

For breakfast or lunch you may want to try the Girard Dinor (the spelling is correct). You have to try one of their homemade pies. Their meals were large, delicious and not a spec of low cal anything to ruin the meal. It's near Elk Creek.
