

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : rattlers

Re: rattlers

Author: : tabasco_joe

Date: : 2009/2/27 7:31:34

URL:

I worry more about copperheads. We have them on the small spring creeks at my cabin. They can lay in the watercress and strike without warning. I often think about them when I'm fishing Falling Spring, etc.

On rare occasions when fishing in back country areas with a reputation for snakes I carry a pistol with snake shot. The odds of killing a snake close enough to strike before it stikes is almost zero.