

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : rattlers

Re: rattlers

Author: : brookieaddict

Date: : 2009/2/27 9:50:38

URL:

I usually start seeing them scouting a week before spring gobbler season in the afternoon on sunny days. Timbers are the usual variety and around the blueberry bushes you find a host of young Copperheads. Snake boots are a must where we hunt unless of course you want to imitate the croc hunter and we know God was protecting him most of his adrenaline filled life.