No prob, dude! I am a revolutionist!

Sometimes you have to do the right thing, even if it means breaking the law. If I see a heron or a cormorant, I'll wack the stinkin' thing. Nobodys gonna pay a 10K fine! especially me!! LOL If I see illegals catchin' fish without a license, I'll break their rods and throw them in the creek!

Enough of that, now it's back to "Death Wish" for this guy.

"What do you call people when faced with a problem who hide and don't do anything about it?" -- civilized? I don't think so!
