Dave, I'm not sure how old your son is, but I'll tell you what got Gino to turn the corner and switch to fly fishing. We were coming home from the Jamboree and stopped at Spruce Creek. Green Drakes were coming off. Not heavy, but enough that we saw some trout taking them from the surface and were able to catch a few naturals to examine up close. Now, he leaves the spinning rod behind when we go trout fishing.

Take him out during a strong hatch -- that oughta do it.
