My first two were Bergman's Trout and Brooks' Trout Fishing. Soon afterwards came Flick's Streamside Guide, S/bert's Matching the Hatch, Marinaro, Fox, etc, etc. I still think Bergman's Trout is the best of that genre of trout (mainly fly) fishing books, and I enjoy re-reading portions of it occasionally. If I could keep only 10 or 15 of the more than 200 fishing books I have, Trout would certainly be a keeper. It is a wonderful book.
