Yo tro

I started below the ford and quickly got into small brookies, some were too small to actually ingest the #16 caddis. Within the first hour, I had landed 5 from 5-8 inches. I then worked fairly quickly through the next run and got a 9 inch brown. Then I worked over a really good looking pool for an hour - nada. I concluded there was one (or more) larger browns hogging the hole.

Wanting to get the Potter County Grand Slam I switched streams to find a willing rainbow.
