Great fish and pics! Fishing Jan 1 has been a tradition of my dad and I for over 25 years. Never missed in that time period. But we always trout fish at least 1 or more times per week, 52 weeks a year. Seems to be a lot of folks that do the Jan 1 thing though.

Water was perfect in my area also. We fished a small wild trout stream with wild brooks and bows. Did pretty well, got 6 each.

Of interest, was a nice 11 in wild bow, that, once landed, spit out 2 red backed salamanders about 2 inches each. I thought that was pretty cool. And it still wanted to eat my half crawler lol
