Tomgamber,

I could not agree with you more on the fear mongering "loud mouths". I won't even watch FOX news any more. They've got this recovering alcoholic Glen Beck, who spews his fearing nonsense on radio and TV air waves all day long. It's a shame because Fox was always so entertaining before. I just can't abide that Donkey. Having said that, I would rather have two expensive peices of Boo then a truck load of graphite from any country.
