Went to the quarry for first time. Cold and Wind; very tough fishing. Went with my brother and his buddy who brought all the their spinning gear (spinners, power bait, worms). They had 5 rods out using slip bobbers and throwing metal. I fished b/h princes, b/h flashback p/t etc.; stripping streamers...2 fish total and missed 3. Free falling nymphs got me my hits The baiters ended with 1 each. Fished 10:00 to 14:00. Fish looked healthy but were shorts. No big pallys by the bridge, but some decent fish just upstream. Had to say my expectations where much higher. Bottom line, wrong day to go. Sucks; would've have been nice to hang em like you did. Seeing risers everywhere on flat water there must be a sight to see
