And you call the media spinsters?... You can continue to make your own point if you want but that wasn't mine. I guess if you expect only wild fish and you catch stockies, that would be disappointing. But unless you are fishing a Class A you should know better by now.

If the white truck was the only thing creating camp followers, why do we keep the wild stream so secret?

So hwy do we fish these streams if they are so overrated? What are you 2 most UNDerrated streams?
