

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Zebra Midges

Re: Zebra Midges

Author: : flybop

Date: : 2009/4/25 12:34:11

URL:

One of my most productive flies this spring has been a 20 or 22 Zebra. I have been tying them in black, red and olive. One variant that has worked real, real well is one without the bead and with a short wing of flash type material. I have been using minnow belly flash, but KF works too. These flies ave caught fish as a deep nymph and as a damp dry, and everywhere in between.