

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : silver mine park catch and release

silver mine park catch and release

Author: : bushwacker

Date: : 2009/4/26 0:00:57

URL:

Just wanted to let the Lancaster area warm water enthusiasts know to check out the pequea silver mine park. There is a catch and release lake that has been active for a while but it always looked stagnant and dead. Never had any luck there before but they must have cleaned it and stocked it or something because it looks like stellar panfish water now. Took a walk there the other week and saw many large sunfish and bass .