Dear Wmass,

I only have one catalog in front of me to refer to, but Fly-Rite is probably the most common poly dubbing. SuperFine is another brand name. I'm looking in Fly Fisher's Paradise catalog, 1-814-234-4189 is their number and they have both, but most fly shops will carry one or the other, or in many cases both.

If you call Fly Fisher's Paradise they will set you up with what you need. They have pre-packaged dubbing selections that come in a box with a dozen of the most common colors available for about $ 13.00 to $ 15.00 depending on the material you want. I've been dealing with them for 30 years and can recommend them 100%.

Regards,

Tim Murphy 😊
