Troy,

I'm basically going to repeat what everyone else has said.

I've been tying since the late 80's and I thought I would never pick up speed. Since I was enjoying what I was doing and the trout seemed to like my work, I just stopped worrying about how slow I tied. A couple of years ago, I was taking a break from tying (read that-getting a beer) when I noticed a large pile of flies on my magnet. I had tied about a dozen in an hour.

Just enjoy what you're doing. The speed will come. Remember, we're arteests! We don't need to be in a rush!
