

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : carp

Re: carp

Author: : SWeiss

Date: : 2009/7/31 12:26:26

URL:

I've had good luck with carp using a wet pattern that resembles a kernel of corn. A yellow egg with a tiny piece of shot above the hook works well. Only problem with this seems to be nuisance fish striking it a lot.

While on the water, keep on the look out for overhanging mulberry trees. Carp will gorge themselves on the falling berries, and a purple mulberry imitation pattern works well fished dry or wet.