

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Blue Herons

Re: Blue Herons

Author: : Chaz

Date: : 2009/8/4 17:58:26

URL:

open a season and only take the blue herons that have at least six points on their antlers. Seriously, though there were a lot of birds on the brink or near the brink, that if it were not for the ban on DDT would have headed into oblivion. Could you imagine a world without the eastern blue bird? There's no doubt in my mind that it's had a positive impact on wild trout populations, though I've never seen any data on that.